We write on behalf of our client, represented herein as the 'Interested Party.' The Interested Party has requested that this office communicate certain concerns regarding ongoing account-related outreach purportedly originating from your institution's records unit. At present, the Interested Party instructs counsel to demand clarifying information and a stop to specific outreach modes pending confirmation of authority to contact. The language of this correspondence is intentionally circumspect: while it does not explicitly demand a universal cessation of all contact, it requests immediate verification of the legal basis for continuing communications and that you refrain from initiating further direct contact by any new channels until such justification is provided. If you consider any prior authorization to persist, please supply documentary evidence of that authorization. This notice is issued without prejudice to the Interested Party's rights and remedies under applicable law. Please treat this communication as time-sensitive and acknowledge receipt. Counsel reserves the right to take additional steps should the matter not be resolved promptly.
